APERITIVO - LIQUEUR

Palacio de Bellas Artes, México D.F. Circa 1904

Monsieur Henri Vallet emigrated to Mexico from France during the brief reign of Maximillian, the ill-fated European monarch who was deposed by Mexican nationalists three short years after his 1864 ascent as Emperor of Mexico. Like other French émigrés of the era, Mnsr. Henri Vallet chose to remain in his adopted homeland, and by the 1880s had emerged as Mexico City's preeminent distiller of liqueurs and elixirs, including two that today continue to be crafted according to his specific recipes and formulation guidelines and a new formulation inspired by classic Italian aperitivi.

Granada-Vallet is a 64-proof herbaceous bitter liqueur from Mexico City inspired by Italian aperitivi. Pomegranate tartness with hints of rhubarb and cinnamon is balanced by earthy quassia wood and gentian, with citrus notes of orange and lemon. Oaxacan cochineal delivers its beautiful color, redolent of sunset, to culminate in this balanced, all-natural Mexican liqueur best served over ice or in your favorite craft cocktail.
